

Putumayo Presents
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

Samba and bossa nova meet soul, funk and electronica
on this upbeat collection of modern Brazilian music

The Putumayo Grooves series continues to present music that captures the union of tradition and technology with Brazilian Groove, which will be released on September 9, 2003. The soulful sounds of samba, bossa nova and popular Brazilian music have been invigorated in recent years as DJs, remixers and fans of classic funk and soul have blended the best of many worlds. The underground dance and electronica scene is thriving in cities like Rio and Sao Paulo, and DJs around the globe have used the captivating rhythms of Brazil as underpinnings for exotic musical cocktails that have been filling dance floors from London to LA.

Featuring remixed bossa nova classics, samba funk and hip beats from the Brazilian new wave, Brazilian Groove captures the spirit of this exciting musical movement. The result is a celebratory collection that will satisfy fans of classic Brazilian music, soul, funk and electronica.

Brazilian Groove features tracks from Rosalia de Souza, a young Brazilian singer based in Italy, BossaCucaNova, a trio of remixers from Rio who reinvent a bossa nova classic by Silvio Cesar, Zuco 103, the Amsterdam-based group that has taken Brazilian music in exciting new directions, Max de Castro, a leader of Brazil's new samba-soul generation, Miriam Maria, an inventive singer who has worked with many of Brazil's avante garde musicians, Carlinhos Brown, the legendary master musician and songwriter from Bahia, Bab & Rolando 808, a Paris-based duet that fuses electronica and classic Brazilian music, Dos Santos, a newcomer who promises to be an important figure in the Brazilian music scene, Aleh, a rising star of Brazilian funk and soul, Barrio Jazz Gang, Italian pioneers of bossa nova-flavored remixes, Marcello, a young singer who has become his generation's Gilberto Gil, and Electro Côco, a collective based in the Netherlands that blends traditional Brazilian rhythms with drum and bass.

The Putumayo Groove series, which includes Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove and African Groove, has earned critical accolades and considerable sales success with a combined 20 weeks in the top 15 Billboard world chart.

A portion of the proceeds of Brazilian Groove will be donated to the Putumayo Cross-Cultural Initiative, a non-profit organization that uses the power of world music and the arts to inspire children to explore and connect with diverse cultures. P.C.C.I. seeks to spark the curiosity of children and inspire them to become global citizens. (PCCI is a project of the Tides Center, a non-profit 501 (c)(3)).

For more information or to set up interviews with available artists, please contact our main office 1-800-995-9588:

Radio Promotion Coordinator, Angela Huffstutler, ext. 262 or angela@putumayo.com

PUTUMAYO
World Music
Guaranteed to make you feel good!
www.putumayo.com

Putumayo Presents
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

Samba and bossa nova meet soul, funk and electronica
on this upbeat collection of modern Brazilian music

The Putumayo Grooves series continues to present music that captures the union of tradition and technology with Brazilian Groove, which will be released on September 9, 2003. The soulful sounds of samba, bossa nova and popular Brazilian music have been invigorated in recent years as DJs, remixers and fans of classic funk and soul have blended the best of many worlds. The underground dance and electronica scene is thriving in cities like Rio and Sao Paulo, and DJs around the globe have used the captivating rhythms of Brazil as underpinnings for exotic musical cocktails that have been filling dance floors from London to LA.

Featuring remixed bossa nova classics, samba funk and hip beats from the Brazilian new wave, Brazilian Groove captures the spirit of this exciting musical movement. The result is a celebratory collection that will satisfy fans of classic Brazilian music, soul, funk and electronica.

Brazilian Groove features tracks from Rosalia de Souza, a young Brazilian singer based in Italy, BossaCucaNova, a trio of remixers from Rio who reinvent a bossa nova classic by Silvio Cesar, Zuco 103, the Amsterdam-based group that has taken Brazilian music in exciting new directions, Max de Castro, a leader of Brazil's new samba-soul generation, Miriam Maria, an inventive singer who has worked with many of Brazil's avante garde musicians, Carlinhos Brown, the legendary master musician and songwriter from Bahia, Bab & Rolando 808, a Paris-based duet that fuses electronica and classic Brazilian music, Dos Santos, a newcomer who promises to be an important figure in the Brazilian music scene, Aleh, a rising star of Brazilian funk and soul, Barrio Jazz Gang, Italian pioneers of bossa nova-flavored remixes, Marcello, a young singer who has become his generation's Gilberto Gil, and Electro Côco, a collective based in the Netherlands that blends traditional Brazilian rhythms with drum and bass.

The Putumayo Groove series, which includes Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove and African Groove, has earned critical accolades and considerable sales success with a combined 20 weeks in the top 15 Billboard world chart.

A portion of the proceeds of Brazilian Groove will be donated to the Putumayo Cross-Cultural Initiative, a non-profit organization that uses the power of world music and the arts to inspire children to explore and connect with diverse cultures. P.C.C.I. seeks to spark the curiosity of children and inspire them to become global citizens. (PCCI is a project of the Tides Center, a non-profit 501 (c)(3)).

For more information please contact:

Christian Dalbavie (Managing Director) +31 (0)35 647-5001 • email: christian@putumayo.com
Igor E. Rooselaar (International Sales & Marketing Manager) +31 35 647 5000 or Igor@putumayo.nl

PUTUMAYO
World Music
Guaranteed to make you feel good!

Putumayo Europe

Oude Amersfoortseweg 249 D, 1212 AD Hilversum, The Netherlands

tel: +31 (35) 647 5000 • fax: +31 (35) 685 4107

www.putumayo.com

P u t u m a y o P r e s e n t s
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

Samba and bossa nova meet soul, funk and electronica
on this upbeat collection of modern Brazilian music

The Putumayo Grooves series continues to present music that captures the union of tradition and technology with Brazilian Groove, which will be released on September 9, 2003. The soulful sounds of samba, bossa nova and popular Brazilian music have been invigorated in recent years as DJs, remixers and fans of classic funk and soul have blended the best of many worlds. The underground dance and electronica scene is thriving in cities like Rio and Sao Paulo, and DJs around the globe have used the captivating rhythms of Brazil as underpinnings for exotic musical cocktails that have been filling dance floors from London to LA.

Featuring remixed bossa nova classics, samba funk and hip beats from the Brazilian new wave, Brazilian Groove captures the spirit of this exciting musical movement. The result is a celebratory collection that will satisfy fans of classic Brazilian music, soul, funk and electronica.

Brazilian Groove features tracks from Rosalia de Souza, a young Brazilian singer based in Italy, BossaCucaNova, a trio of remixers from Rio who reinvent a bossa nova classic by Silvio Cesar, Zuco 103, the Amsterdam-based group that has taken Brazilian music in exciting new directions, Max de Castro, a leader of Brazil's new samba-soul generation, Miriam Maria, an inventive singer who has worked with many of Brazil's avante garde musicians, Carlinhos Brown, the legendary master musician and songwriter from Bahia, Bab & Rolando 808, a Paris-based duet that fuses electronica and classic Brazilian music, Dos Santos, a newcomer who promises to be an important figure in the Brazilian music scene, Aleh, a rising star of Brazilian funk and soul, Barrio Jazz Gang, Italian pioneers of bossa nova-flavored remixes, Marcello, a young singer who has become his generation's Gilberto Gil, and Electro Côco, a collective based in the Netherlands that blends traditional Brazilian rhythms with drum and bass.

The Putumayo Groove series, which includes Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove and African Groove, has earned critical accolades and considerable sales success with a combined 20 weeks in the top 15 Billboard world chart.

A portion of the proceeds of Brazilian Groove will be donated to the Putumayo Cross-Cultural Initiative, a non-profit organization that uses the power of world music and the arts to inspire children to explore and connect with diverse cultures. P.C.C.I. seeks to spark the curiosity of children and inspire them to become global citizens. (PCCI is a project of the Tides Center, a non-profit 501 (c)(3)).

For more information, requests or additional CDs call your Putumayo Distributor or Michele Amar-Ouimet (World) (212) 625-1400 ext. 245 • email: michele@putumayo.com
Christian Dalbavie (Europe) +31 (0)35 647-5000 • email: christian@putumayo.com

PUTUMAYO
World Music

Guaranteed to make you feel good!

324 Lafayette Street, New York, NY 10012

tel: 212-625-1400 • fax: 212-460-0095

www.putumayo.com

Putumayo Presents
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

La samba y la bossa nova se ligan con el soul, el funk y la onda electrónica en esta recopilación caleidoscópica de la música brasileña contemporánea

La serie Putumayo Grooves continúa regalándonos ofertas musicales que festejan la fusión de la tradición y la tecnología en su nuevo álbum Brazilian Groove, que llegará al público el 9 de septiembre de 2003. El alma legendaria de la samba, la bossa nova y la música popular brasileña ha renacido en los últimos años gracias a la creatividad de los pinchadiscos, los mezcladores y los cultivadores del funk y el soul clásicos, que han fusionado lo mejor de todos esos mundos. El ambiente underground de la música dance y electrónica florece en ciudades como Río de Janeiro y Sao Paulo, mientras que los pinchadiscos de todo el mundo están aprovechando los ritmos cautivadores de Brasil como base para sus exóticos cócteles musicales que han puesto a bailar a multitudes desde Londres hasta Los Ángeles.

En Brazilian Groove se presentan novedosas mezclas de los clásicos de la bossa nova, la samba funk y los sonidos de vanguardia de la nueva onda brasileña, donde se refleja el espíritu de este apasionante movimiento musical. El fruto final es una recopilación festiva que deleitará a los aficionados de la música brasileña de siempre, del soul, del funk y del estilo electrónico.

Brazilian Groove incluye piezas de Rosalía de Souza, una joven cantante brasileña radicada en Italia; BossaCucaNova, un trío de mezcladores de Río de Janeiro que han reinventado un clásico de la bossa nova de Silvio Cesar; Zuco 103, la agrupación afincada en Amsterdam que ha marcado nuevos rumbos para la música brasileña; Max de Castro, uno de los nuevos profetas de la generación samba-soul de Brasil; Miriam Maria, una cantante innovadora que ha trabajado con muchos de los músicos de avanzada de Brasil; Carlinhos Brown, el legendario virtuoso musical y compositor de Bahía; Bab & Rolando 808, un dúo radicado en París que fusiona la onda electrónica y la música tradicional brasileña; Dos Santos, una joven figura que promete convertirse en exponente destacado del ambiente musical brasileño; Aleh, estrella naciente del funk y el soul de Brasil; Barrio Jazz Gang, pioneros italianos de las mezclas con sabor a bossa nova; Marcello, un cantante joven que se ha convertido en el Gilberto Gil de su generación; y Electro Côco, una agrupación de los Países Bajos que fusiona los ritmos brasileños de siempre con el "drum and bass".

La serie Groove de Putumayo, en la que se incluyen Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove y African Groove, ha recibido los mayores elogios de la crítica y cosechado enormes éxitos de venta, con un total acumulado de 20 semanas en la cartelera de los 15 primeros títulos mundiales de la revista Billboard.

Una parte de la recaudación comercial de Brazilian Groove se donará a la Iniciativa Transcultural Putumayo, proyecto sin ánimo de lucro del Tides Center, que emplea la música del mundo, el aprendizaje práctico y las artes con el fin de inspirar a los niños y sus familias a explorar diversas culturas y a familiarizarse con ellas.

Si desea más información, formular pedidos o solicitar más discos, llame al distribuidor de Putumayo o a:
Michele Amar-Ouimet (Mundo) Teléfono (212) 625-1400, extensión 245 • Correo electrónico: michele@putumayo.com
Christian Dalbavie (Europa) Teléfono +31 35 647-5000 • Correo electrónico: christian@putumayo.com
Leandro Herbstein (Mundo) Teléfono (212) 625-1400, extensión 215 • Correo electrónico: leandro@putumayo.com

PUTUMAYO
World Music
Guaranteed to make you feel good!
www.putumayo.com

P u t u m a y o P r e s e n t s
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

Samba and bossa nova meet soul, funk and electronica
on this upbeat collection of modern Brazilian music

The Putumayo Grooves series continues to present music that captures the union of tradition and technology with Brazilian Groove, which will be released on September 9, 2003. The soulful sounds of samba, bossa nova and popular Brazilian music have been invigorated in recent years as DJs, remixers and fans of classic funk and soul have blended the best of many worlds. The underground dance and electronica scene is thriving in cities like Rio and Sao Paulo, and DJs around the globe have used the captivating rhythms of Brazil as underpinnings for exotic musical cocktails that have been filling dance floors from London to LA.

Featuring remixed bossa nova classics, samba funk and hip beats from the Brazilian new wave, Brazilian Groove captures the spirit of this exciting musical movement. The result is a celebratory collection that will satisfy fans of classic Brazilian music, soul, funk and electronica.

Brazilian Groove features tracks from Rosalia de Souza, a young Brazilian singer based in Italy, BossaCucaNova, a trio of remixers from Rio who reinvent a bossa nova classic by Silvio Cesar, Zuco 103, the Amsterdam-based group that has taken Brazilian music in exciting new directions, Max de Castro, a leader of Brazil's new samba-soul generation, Miriam Maria, an inventive singer who has worked with many of Brazil's avante garde musicians, Carlinhos Brown, the legendary master musician and songwriter from Bahia, Bab & Rolando 808, a Paris-based duet that fuses electronica and classic Brazilian music, Dos Santos, a newcomer who promises to be an important figure in the Brazilian music scene, Aleh, a rising star of Brazilian funk and soul, Barrio Jazz Gang, Italian pioneers of bossa nova-flavored remixes, Marcello, a young singer who has become his generation's Gilberto Gil, and Electro Côco, a collective based in the Netherlands that blends traditional Brazilian rhythms with drum and bass.

The Putumayo Groove series, which includes Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove and African Groove, has earned critical accolades and considerable sales success with a combined 20 weeks in the top 15 Billboard world chart.

A portion of the proceeds of Brazilian Groove will be donated to the Putumayo Cross-Cultural Initiative, a non-profit organization that uses the power of world music and the arts to inspire children to explore and connect with diverse cultures. P.C.C.I. seeks to spark the curiosity of children and inspire them to become global citizens. (PCCI is a project of the Tides Center, a non-profit 501 (c)(3)).

For more information please contact our main office 1-800-995-9588:

Web and Lifestyle Marketing, Ben de Menil, ext. 210 or benjamin@putumayo.com

If you are interested in selling our CD's, please contact Chad Kraus ext. 221 or chad@putumayo.com

PUTUMAYO
World Music
Guaranteed to make you feel good!
www.putumayo.com

Putumayo Presents
BRAZILIAN GROOVE

Samba and bossa nova meet soul, funk and electronica
on this upbeat collection of modern Brazilian music

The Putumayo Grooves series continues to present music that captures the union of tradition and technology with Brazilian Groove, which will be released on September 9, 2003. The soulful sounds of samba, bossa nova and popular Brazilian music have been invigorated in recent years as DJs, remixers and fans of classic funk and soul have blended the best of many worlds. The underground dance and electronica scene is thriving in cities like Rio and Sao Paulo, and DJs around the globe have used the captivating rhythms of Brazil as underpinnings for exotic musical cocktails that have been filling dance floors from London to LA.

Featuring remixed bossa nova classics, samba funk and hip beats from the Brazilian new wave, Brazilian Groove captures the spirit of this exciting musical movement. The result is a celebratory collection that will satisfy fans of classic Brazilian music, soul, funk and electronica.

Brazilian Groove features tracks from Rosalia de Souza, a young Brazilian singer based in Italy, BossaCucaNova, a trio of remixers from Rio who reinvent a bossa nova classic by Silvio Cesar, Zuco 103, the Amsterdam-based group that has taken Brazilian music in exciting new directions, Max de Castro, a leader of Brazil's new samba-soul generation, Miriam Maria, an inventive singer who has worked with many of Brazil's avante garde musicians, Carlinhos Brown, the legendary master musician and songwriter from Bahia, Bab & Rolando 808, a Paris-based duet that fuses electronica and classic Brazilian music, Dos Santos, a newcomer who promises to be an important figure in the Brazilian music scene, Aleh, a rising star of Brazilian funk and soul, Barrio Jazz Gang, Italian pioneers of bossa nova-flavored remixes, Marcello, a young singer who has become his generation's Gilberto Gil, and Electro Côco, a collective based in the Netherlands that blends traditional Brazilian rhythms with drum and bass.

The Putumayo Groove series, which includes Arabic Groove, Asian Groove, Latin Groove and African Groove, has earned critical accolades and considerable sales success with a combined 20 weeks in the top 15 Billboard world chart.

A portion of the proceeds of Brazilian Groove will be donated to the Putumayo Cross-Cultural Initiative, a non-profit organization that uses the power of world music and the arts to inspire children to explore and connect with diverse cultures. P.C.C.I. seeks to spark the curiosity of children and inspire them to become global citizens. (PCCI is a project of the Tides Center, a non-profit 501 (c)(3)).

For more information please contact our main office: 1 (800) 995-9588

Web and Lifestyle Marketing, Ben de Menil, ext. 210 or benjamin@putumayo.com

Director of Promotion, Cassandra Goins, ext. 242 or cassandra@putumayo.com

VP of Marketing, Susan Rosenberg, ext. 243 or susan@putumayo.com

PUTUMAYO
World Music
Guaranteed to make you feel good!
www.putumayo.com